CHEAM TRADING POST

#GoWild

We offer only wild salmon and seafood products fresh from the Salish Sea and its tributaries, which are the largest and healthiest salmon producing rivers in the world.

#BuyLocal

Buy with confidence knowing we work hard to support the local economy—from arts, crafts and jewelry to food, seafood and produce. It's all in store, wild, local and fair trade.

#SupportFairTrade

We support the local economy by paying fair market value to our local craftspeople, artists, farmers and fisherman and take pride in offering the best value to the customer.

OUR STORY

The Cheam Trading Post is owned by Darwin Douglas and Lincoln Douglas, cousins from the Cheam First Nation—a local Sto:lo Coast Salish community in southwestern British Columbia. The Salish Sea and the traditional territory of the Sto:lo have much to offer—Wild Salmon, Wild-crafted Foods, indigenous arts and crafts. Visit us to learn more!
